

MICHAEL RODRIGUEZ

My name is Michael Rodriguez I currently play professional baseball for the San Francisco Giants. I was drafted in the 18th round of the 2023 MLB draft. A little bit about myself I am a left handed pitcher who trained at all the big names facilities such as tread athletics, diesel optimization, driveline, and more! A shorten form of my accolades: NCAA 2022 College World Series champion, 2023 NCAA 1st team Relief pitcher, during my last college fall season I was nicknamed "The Nightmare" after striking out 36 batters of 38 batters faced. Lastly, I want to spread the love for the game by sharing the knowledge I learned through the 18 years of experience I have playing the game.
